

Chef

Job Description

We are looking for an experienced cook (home or professional experience) to join our growing team at Helping Hands ministries. Food is an essential part of our ministry and over the years we have built the reputation of not only serving delicious food but of honouring and giving dignity to refugees in the way we serve our meals.

Responsibilities:

- Planning, preparing and serving meals at our programs
- Creating a monthly menu that is both delicious and culturally sensitive (e.g no pork, persian herbs and spices used, etc.)
- Ensuring clear communication with supply coordinator for any required ingredients - Regularly checking supply levels to ensure the kitchen remains fully stocked - Communicating with team members and volunteers involved in food preparation - Including persian volunteers in menu creation and preparation
- Participating in team meetings, activities, retreats, prayer days, bible studies and any other roles expected of every team member

Essential experience

- Working knowledge of the functionings of an industrial kitchen
- Experience cooking for large groups (e.g we regularly serve over 150 people in a single sitting)

Desired experience

- Cross cultural mission work whether short or long term
- Experience leading a kitchen team
- Farsi/Dari language knowledge or a willingness to learn

Salary: This role requires 100% fund raising.

There is a genuine requirement that the person filling this role would be a practising Christian who fully agrees with our Statement of Faith.